CITY ELECTION

Re-election of Abner Haldeman as a city councilman was not surprising in Tuesday's city-wide balloting. Most pre-election forecasters already had him in office.

Likewise, with Jarvis J. Leman, who was a favorite before the voting and this popularity was proved by the fact that he placed No. 1 in the standings.

"The fight will be for third place", many people told us.. and we agreed.

The selection of Philip Holden as the third man in the balloting is somewhat amazing in view of the fact that he has never before been in the public spotlight. His popularity is really a vote of confidence in a name and in the fact that he is known by acquaintances as a very "solid" individual.

Without a doubt, the name of his fine parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. Wade Holden helped in the election. "Phil" is a native son, truly a "hometown" young man, whose interests and efforts are dedicated to making the only place he has ever known, better.

We heard some "conversational wagering" last week that placed Mrs. Beatrice Riggs and Daniel Maher ahead of Mr. Holden. That was a good bet, due to the prominence of both of these people in their wide circle of interests. Mrs. Riggs is president of the Upland Woman's club and an active realtor. Mr. Maher is a long-time member of the Upland planning commission, a Rotarian and active in community affairs.

The other candidates were also good selections.

ASSISTANCE LEAGUE

For years, members of the Assistance League of Upland have been contributing greatly to the betterment of all the foothill communities.

Their current undertaking is also outstandingly noteworthy — purchasing and furnishing of a new chapter

Monument Valley Movies Shown Lions By Clark

Picturesque Monument valley, historic Indian Country in Arizona, was vividly portrayed in pictures by an ace photographer, Col. Howard F. Clark, at the meeting of Upland Lions club last week.

He spoke at the meeting in Upland Woman's club house on a recent tour he and Mrs. Clark made through the Indian country. Col. and Mrs. Clark are active in the photographic hobby and the colored films presented many unusual formations of Monument valley.

Larry Coleman was program chairman with the Rev. Paul Goering, vice president, presiding.

RAINFALL NEARS RECORD

Rainfall figures compiled by Liberty Groves Operating Corp. total 36.44 inches for the 10 months, nine days of the 1957-58 season, 21.38 inches more than was measured for the entire 1956-57 season.

On this same date a year ago, the season's rainfall had amounted to 11.57 inches. With the 36.44 inch measurement made at 19th St., rainfall gauges in other Upland areas have recorded close to 40 inches of rainfall. The record rainfall for Upland was 39 inches in 1940-41. With the past two days having been bright with sunshine, the area appears in for a comfortable respite before more rain falls.

Leman, Haldeman, Holden Win At Polls

Take Office Tuesday After Election Canvass By Clerk

Jarvis J. Leman and Philip C. Holden will become Upland city councilmen next Tuesday and Abner Haldeman will begin another four year term at that time.

Voters in Tuesday's city-wide election picked these three men from a list of eight candidates.

Mr. Leman headed the list of winners with Mr. Haldeman, a popular incumbent, being a very close second.

Mr. Holden was in third place after a nip-and-tuck vote race with Mrs. Beatrice Riggs and Daniel W. Maher.

Carr, Thrall Retire

The two new councilmen will succeed to the positions held by Donald Carr, who is mayor, and Robt. Thrall. The two retiring councilmen had each served eight years. Mr. Haldeman was first elected four years ago.

Here is the unofficial total vote in all eight Upland precincts:

Jarvis Leman	1,216
Abner Haldeman	1,210
Philip Holden	876
Mrs. Beatrice Riggs	824
Daniel Maher	784
Marvin Dunn	667
Jack Isom	536
Douglas Harp	377

Mr. Leman gained a heavy lead over Mr. Haldeman in the vote among citrus growers and others balloting at the 18th St. school house. Here the vote was: Leman, 168; Haldeman, 144. Mr. Leman also gained on his fellow-official in the voting at the Upland housing authority. Mr. Leman is secretary-treasurer of Upland Lemon Growers Assn. and this may account for his vote popularity in those areas. Mr. Haldeman headed the vote totals in all other precincts.

Precinct Leaders

In the Holden-Riggs race for third place, Mrs. Riggs led in three precincts and Mr. Holden in five but in all cases, the count was very close.

Mr. Maher, who in some circles was expected to be elected, had a big margin over Mr. Holden in the South Euclid Ave. voting place. In fact, he finished first over all candidates there. Mr. Maher also led Mr. Holden in the Upland Housing authority voting booths. Mr. Dunn, however, defeated Mr. Maher in that precinct.

Mr. Isom and Mr. Harp polled good support in several precincts.

JARVIS J. LEMAN

2261 At Polls

A total of 2261 ballots were cast in the voting.

Fourteen absentee ballots will be recorded in the present council's final session Tuesday night. Votes cast this week will be canvassed and Mayor Carr will call for a "sine die" motion.

City Clerk Hazel Cassell will then swear in the three councilmen and later preside in the selection of a mayor.

Mr. Haldeman will be the "senior" member of the council, having served since 1954. It is anticipated that he will be nominated for the role of mayor.

ABNER B. HALDEMAN

Wm. Kistinger and John Nicholson, hold-over councilmen, may also be considered by their fellow councilmen for the honor and duties of presiding and representing the community on various occasions.

Since Mr. Leman finished first in the tabulation, it is also possible he will be given consideration.

Ontario Results

Chas. Latimer, real estate broker, and Jack Cooper, co-owner of an automobile agency, were elected to the Ontario city council Tuesday. They will succeed Sam Wickersham and C. W. Illingworth, who are defeated incumbents.

PHILIP C. HOLDEN

Today Deadline For Registering

Today, Thursday, April 10, is the deadline for registering to vote in the June 3 primary elections, according to Mrs. Lillian Hilde, chamber of commerce secretary and a registrar of voters.

Mrs. Hilde, at the chamber office located in the city hall annex, north of the city hall on Second Ave., and Mrs. Harry Plum, 484 N. Second Ave., are two of Upland's official registrars.

After today, the registration books will be taken from all registrars and returned to the county office until June 3.

Test Case Would Decide Payment Of City Refunds

Considerable misunderstanding has resulted from the proposed test case regarding city payment of refunds to developers who paid into the funds now held illegal by the courts.

As Councilman John Nicholson boiled it down "in a nut shell", the proposed action means this: The city clerk will refuse to sign a warrant to force the matter into court as a test case. If the court upholds the city's desire to refund all monies paid into the funds, the city will then proceed with such refunds.

SILVER SCRIBES

Silver Scribes will meet Tuesday, 1:30 pm., in the home of Mrs. Lloyd Glenn, 4948 Kingsley Dr., Ontario.

"Mr. Derby", Dr. Martin continued, "is service and community minded and will continue to represent the college in the area of public relations."

RICHARD DERBY JR.

Buy 'n Bid Days With B 'n B Bucks Offer Customers Chance To Buy Bankrolls

Buy 'n Bid Days, a brand new customer bonus feature, is being presented for the first time anywhere next week, April 17, 18 and 19 by a large group of Upland business firms.

Buy 'n Bid Days will appeal to the majority of shoppers because the reward or bonus is earned and is not arrived at by drawing or fishbowls crammed with currency.

These currency-filled fishbowls will be displayed in the central show window at the J. J. Atwood Co., 216 N. Second Ave. Also at this location will be a depository for bids and a supply of bid blanks.

Bid Forms Provided

Each fishbowl will carry a designating number. Bid blanks will be filled out by bidders to indicate desired fishbowl by designating number. Small bid blanks will be provided for customer convenience.

Bids must be made in B 'n B Bucks. Cash is no good in this auction. B 'n B Bucks may be obtained from any of 17 business firms in the downtown Upland Shopping center taking part in B 'n B Days.

These firms are carrying advertisements in The Upland News especially designated by a Buy 'n Bid Days heading. The heading designating these advertisements is the same in all cases. From one to five items will be listed in each of these advertisemnts. A customer buying one or more of these advertised items shall receive B 'n B Bucks in return in amount equal to dollars spent.

Receive Like Amount

A customer buying an advertised item priced at $20 shall receive 20 B 'n B Bucks in return. A downtown Upland shopper buying advertised items amounting to $125 will have 125 B 'n B Bucks for bidding purposes.

B 'n B Bucks will not be given on items except those in the advertisements under the Buy 'n Bid Days heading. Only by purchasing these items does the customer become eligible for B 'n B Bucks.

A customer may bid on one or more of the currency-filled jars in accordance with his judgment and B 'n B Buck bankroll.

The amount of currency is not the same in each fishbowl . . . nor are the totals in the fishbowls to be announced. The amounts stand to vary from $25 to $55 in each fishbowl.

High Bidders Win

High bidders, who are of course the purchasers of fishbowls and contents, shall be announced in a front page story in The Upland News following B 'n B Days. Other close bidders and their bids will also be noted.

Buy 'n Bid Days will be a regular mid-month affair. Only during these three days will B 'n B Bucks be given out or bids taken. B 'n B Bucks are accumulative.

Thrifty shoppers may hoard B 'n B Bucks until such time as they have assurance of a high bid on the bankroll in the fishbowl.

When claiming fishbowl and bankroll at The Upland News, the high bidders must be prepared to deliver the amount of the high bid in B 'n B Bucks.

Here Mrs. Leslie Boyd, League president, and Wm. Manker, whose family owned the house and resided in it for 50 years, discuss the window. On the entrance terrace at left are two Leaguers, Mmes. Herbert Van Brunt and Leslie A. Kalil.

FINAL DECORATING of the living room of the new chapter house of Assistance League of Upland was under way with this group of Leaguers as active participants and Wm. Manker, member of the family which built the home and owned it from 1902 until 1952, looking on as an interested observer. Chapter House To Widen Scope Of League's Community Service

By JOEL BAUGH

Not only a dream of many years will be realized for Assistance League of Upland when its new Chapter house is opened here Sunday, but area residents will see another major step realized in community service.

The house that was home to the community service-minded F. H. Manker family for 50 years, from 1902 until 1952, will now become the working headquarters for the many community service projects of the Assistance league.

Since its incorporation as a chapter of National Assistance league in Nov., 1953, the Upland league has grown and its services and community projects have far exceeded in growth the group's membership increases. The latter has been limited due to lack of an adequate meeting place, and the Chapter house will now provide for an increased membership.

Volunteer Hours

When incorporated, the League had 29 members and now has an active membership of 38. In the first half of the current club year, League members have contributed a total of 3,144 volunteer hours as compared with a total of 3,695 hours for the entire year 1956-57. In addition, this year League members have spent 710 hours assisting in the ground work of the "Oasis", Chaffey district youth center.

In fulfilling its motto of "All for service and service for all," the League presently operates the Children's Dental Health center for two three-hour sessions each week, maintains the Girls' Club of Cucamonga for the girls of North Town area for two hours, five days a week; assists at the county blood bank and with Santa Claus, Inc.; finances the Boys' Club of Cucamonga under YMCA leadership, and supports the Boys' Club of Upland and other philanthropic activities.

Responsible Leader

With such a manifold program, the League has become a vital and responsible leader in service within the community and the surrounding areas which have a definite effect on the area as a whole. No figurehead organization, the League has accomplished its projects through the public spirited efforts and time of its membership, supported by the community at large.

A four-fold program can now widen the League's scope with the new Chapter house facilities: (1) By providing adequate meeting space, the house will allow the League to increase its membership. (2) Increased membership will in turn increase the amount of service the League can offer in presently established philanthropies and in new projects now under study by the group. (3) The house and property included will make possible an Assistance league center for community service, with project work rooms, an office, social rooms and ample storage.

For Community Use

(4) Offering of the house as a community service to other groups is also scheduled. The League has already extended this invitation to Chaffey Community Art Assn., which has been accepted by Mrs. Norman E. Maxwell, Assn. president, filling a need for an outlet for the work of local artists and craftsmen. The Art Assn. will now sponsor exhibits in the Chapter house of both local professional and non-professional artists.

Also planning to use the Chapter house as a meeting place is the "Oasis" board of directors. As an additional service, the League hopes to see an Upland Senior Citizens group formed to which the League could offer its facilities.

Maintenance of the Chapter house will be through various ways and means projects of the League, namely the annual "Valentine Ball". Proceeds from this annual event of the past three seasons aided the League in purchasing the Chapter house. Use of the house for small private luncheons and teas will also help to meet the maintenance costs.

Thrift, Gift Shops

Consideration is now being given the possibility of locating the League's Thrift shop in the Chapter house. A project of gifts to be made by the members for sale at a pre-Christmas tea is now being organized as a fund raising project.

So the house that was home to Mrs. Ada Manker, whose entire life was based on community service as city librarian for 32 years, founder of Upland Business and Professional Woman's club, organizer of San Antonio Library Assn., 12-year member of the school board and campaigner for full citizenship for women, is now to house the activities of an organization continuing and expanding the role of community service.

Assistant League Opens Chapter House On Sunday

Assistance League of Upland will celebrate the formal opening of its new chapter house with an open house, Sunday, 3 to 5 p.m. All interested members of the community are invited to attend and special invitations have been sent to life and sustaining members, patronesses and founders, as well as other special guests.

The new chapter house, known to many long-time residents as the F. H. Manker family home for 50 years, is located at 603 N. Second Ave.

The large, two-story white frame house has been remodeled to better serve the League's activities. The wall between th den and th living room has been removed to form one large 12 by 36 ft. room, adequate for meetings, luncheons and teas. To keep the room open and spacious the permanent furniture will be kept at a minimum. Fifty folding chairs and 10 card tables have been secured for use in this room. The 12 by 14 ft. dining room will feature a matching traditional design dining table, chairs and buffet.

The other rooms of the downstairs include a large kitchen, pantry, bath and porch. The latter may be glassed in to provide space for a thrift shop and later perhaps a gift shop.

Upstairs a large bedroom over the living room will be used as a workshop. One small room will serve as an office and another small room will be used by Chaffey Community Art Assn. for the hanging of small exhibits and the storage of pictures to be rented and sold. The downstairs of the house has been painted a warm beige with matching carpeting and draperies.

Heading the search for, acquisition and preparation of the chapter house has been the League's president, Mrs. Leslie Boyd. Serving on the building committee were Mmes. Edgar J. Summerhays Jr., Wendell Prough, Wayne F. Cameron and Donald DeVore. Serving on the house preparation committee have been Mmes. Herbert Van Brunt, Leslie Kalil and Alan E. Swinler. Mrs. Gilbert Extale and Mrs. Clifford Downing also served on this committee and donated their time and hard work painting and transforming the downstairs bath into a gay pink powder room. Working this week getting the house in final readiness have been provisional members, Mmes. Jack Brewer, Herbert Zebley, Donald Wake, Extale, Leland Scheu, Wm. Dingle and Wm. Terpening.

Heading plans for the open house is Mrs. Floyd Allen who will plan the tea table and the spring floral arrangements to be featured. Serving with her are Mrs. Robt. Buchenau and Mrs. Robt. Thrall, who will plan the food and take charge of its preparation with the assistance of other League members.

Pouring will be Mmes. Norman E. Maxwell, Philip White, Frank Nicholls, Ed. J. Pollack, John S. Diffenbaugh, Wallace Cadet Taylor, J. Dewey Harnish and R. G. Manley.

Carrousel Ball Decor Whimsical

All Proceeds Of Carrousel Ball To Sick Baby Fund

Whimsical circus animals in amusing postures will highlight the circus theme at the Carrousel Ball being arranged by the Women's Auxiliary to San Antonio Community hospital, in Red Hill Country club, April 25.

The deocations committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Clay Bailey has spent hours cutting out and coloring these items, which will be arranged on the tables. The entrance to the dining room will be draped to give the effect of a circus tent. Large as life glittered "animals" in cages will heighten the effect as will clown men balloons, and a ring master.

Assisting with decorations are Mmes. Robt. Adams, W. C. Clapp, Barney Dagan, Keith Geisert, Douglas Harp, Joseph Kamansky, J. R. McNay, Kenneth Powell, Edgar J. Summerhays Jr. and Wheeler Stanley.

Mrs. Harold H. Royaltey, chairman of the event is being assisted in overall arrangements by Mrs. Geo. A. Chalfant, co-chairman.

Mrs. Elmer Carlson and Mrs. Robt. Williamson are in charge of table decorations and Mrs. Wm. E. Walk Jr. is arranging the receiving line.

All proceeds from the event will go into the Sick Baby fund which the auxiliary maintains at San Antonio Community hospital. The fund, according to Mrs. Earl Johnson, has been most heavily taxed in past months. She explained that this service, available in emergencies, has made hospital care possible for many very sick babies and small children. There is no waiting or red tape when the family doctor deems it is necessary to give small patients its benefits. "I know that in some cases it has been a matter of life and death", Mrs. Johnson said.

Two-year-old H.L.C., had recurrent bouts of bronchial asthma for a period of eight months. Then, unexpectedly, she contracted an upper respiratory infection and this was complicated by an asthmatic attack of more than usual severity. This little girl needed immediate hospitalization.

The parents of this child were not financially able to shoulder the responsibility for this care, but through arrangements made by the doctor, the child was immediately hospitalized, thanks to the Sick Baby fund.

The child was placed in an oxygen tent and antibiotics were administered in fighting off the infection. Laboratory work and a series of x-rays were taken to see how the infection responded to the treatment. In a few days, the child began to look better, developed an appetite and, one week later, the mother carried her baby home from San Antonio Community hospital, thankful that she was living because of those who contributed and made possible the Sick Baoy fund.

COFFEE 'n TEA

What could be better in this Spring weather, than a cup of hot COFFEE or TEA. In the Gourmet Cellar we have several new kinds of coffee. The best for aroma is Martinson's. When it's brewing, you want to dive right into the pot, it smells so good — and it tastes as good as it smells. O'Connor's is a Mocha and Java blend that is well-known for its delicate and flavorful quality. Medaglia D'Oro is an espresso coffee — an after-dinner drink . . . a dark roast. You use one level to rounded tablespoon for each demitasse cup of water. If you're lazy, you can use Spice Islands Turkish Coffee by just mixing with hot water. If you prefer TEA, Twinning's is the world's best. We have many varieties — Earl Grey, Queen Mary, Lapsang Souchong, English Breakfast, Prince of Wales and We also have Spice Islands teas, of which the most popular is Darjeeling Jasmine.

Harley Lovitt New Head Grid Mentor

Harley Lovitt, after five years as a teacher and coach in Upland, is today the newly appointed head football coach at Upland High school, with Coach Wm. E. "Pat" Bandy, now a football assistant coach at Fontana High school, to join the Highlander coaching staff as an assistant football coach next fall.

The promotion for Coach Lovitt followed the appointment of Coach Jerry Bell as athletic director.

Coach Lovitt, a young man who has climbed rapidly to the top echelons of coaching, joined the Upland High school staff three years ago when the school opened for the first time. He has been an assistant football and "C" basketball coach for three years, following two years with Upland Jr. High school where he taught mathematics, physical education and coached football, basketball and baseball.

U of R Graduate

His teams have been consistently well-coached and notable for esprit de corps as well as their accomplishments on the field. The affable mentor has also maintained a well-deserved popularity within the coaching ranks as well as with the students.

Coach Lovitt came to Upland in Sept., 1953, following his graduation from the University of Redlands. He played football there in his senior year, being uneligible his junior year due to a transfer. He completed his first two years of college at Citrus college, where he excelled in football and baseball, winning a scholarship in football to the University of New Mexico. In his sophomore year, he attended spring football training at the Albuquerque campus in preparation for the following season. That summer, however, marriage changed his plans and he enrolled instead at Redlands. But that spring training at Albuquerque gave him some valuable experience under "Dub" de Groot

Football In Army

Prior to college, Coach Lovitt had served with the U.S. Army of Occupation in Japan, 1946-47, where he "discovered" football and played half a season before an elbow injury sidelined him. On returning to civilian life and entering college, he continued his football career. He had previously graduated from El Monte High school.

A real family man, Coach Lovitt resides in the Cucamonga countryside in a home he built himself during the summer of 1955. His family includes his wife, Leah Joann, and two children, Debbie, 3½, and Robt., 7 months. Coach Lovitt's building experience was gained during summers between college sessions, when he worked on construction projects.

As to the 1958 football season, Coach Lovitt is anxiously anticipating his first year as head coach of the Highlanders. He has set May 2 as the starting date for a two-week spring practice of night sessions. At this time the gridders will become acquainted with Coach Bandy, the new assistant coach to be a line mentor here after his first year of coaching at Fontana.

Upland High's first graduating class will badly deplete the ranks of football lettermen, but Coach Lovitt—with typical optimism—remarks on a "lot of new faces coming out" whom he knows "will fill in". He has faith in boys who want to play and states that "basically, we have a lot of good kids and they will do well at football."

Returning lettermen are only five, but they are undoubtedly a potent five, as fans will remember from the past season. Lino Robledo, who went both ways in the backfield, and Eddie Collins, offensive halfback, were both second string all-leaguers for the '57 season. Carlyle Lynies, who performed consistently at end on both offensive and defensive play, will also return. J. D. Heath, who will be a junior, was a standout at offensive and devensive tackle his sophomore session, and Alex Molinar, returns after a season as sub-quarterback and defensive linebacker with lots of drive.

COACH HARLEY LOVITT

Wolfe Announces Clinics, View Nights Of Baseball Leagues

Clinics and view nights for all boys 9 to 14 years of age interested in playing on a Little league or Pony league baseball team this summer were announced for this Saturday and next week by Coach Bill Wolfe, Upland's new athletic director for the summer recreation program.

All boys 9 to 12 years of age who are not on a team are urged by Coach Wolfe to report to Memorial park Saturday for the annual clinics, which were rained out last week.

Three Little Leagues

At 9 a.m., the clinic for all boys living in the Foothill Little league area will be held, with the view night following Monday, April 14, 5 p.m. in Memorial park.

American Little league area boys will meet for a clinic at 11 a.m. with the view night following Tuesday, April 15, 5 p.m. National Little league area candidates will meet Saturday, 1 p.m., for the clinic and on Wednesday, April 16, 5 p.m., for the view night in Memorial park.

Coach Wolfe stresses the necessity of a boy attending both clinic and view night if he wants to be selected to a team.

Pony League Sessions

Pony league candidates, 13 and 14-year-olds, will meet at 3 p.m. Saturday for a clinic and on Thursday, April 17, 5 p.m., for the view night. Coach Wolfe especially urges last season's graduates of the Little league program to participate in the clinic and view night for Pony league. He pointed out that for both Little and Pony leagues, the clinic and view night events will be the only two meetings before the selection of teams by the managers later this month.

Coach Wolfe said a boy selected to a team will be notified within a month. If a boy is not assigned to a team, he is automatically eligible for Minor league play which starts in June following the close of the school term. All 9 to 12-year-olds not playing Little league will have the opportunity to play in the Minor league.

Upland Girl In League Speech Finals

Linda Thompson, Chaffey high school senior from Upland, is one of two Chaffey high school students to speak in two events in the Citrus Belt league speech finals to be held Friday and Saturday at Colton high school, according to William Simonsen, speech instructor.

Miss Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Thompson of 876 Sharon Way, Upland, placed first in two events in the preliminaries, Girls' Extemporaneous Speaking and Dramatic Interpretation. She will be seeking to qualify for state competition in May when she speaks in the league finals.

Active in the French club, California Scholarship federation and a member of the Fasti staff, Miss Thompson also had special mention given to a poem of hers printed in the National Poetry anthology for high school students this year.

Miniature Flag Display At School

A brilliantly olored display of 91 miniature flags and posters illustrating the keynote of reference books used in social science classes, has renewed student interest in language, history, and social sciences at Upland high school, according to Mrs. Gladys Naftel, librarian.

In one case the display of flags includes 82 official flags of the United Nations, 81 member nations and the UN flag. The flags are silk screen mounted on ebonized staffs. In the second case is the display of United States historical flags, including the St. George cross, the King's colors, Cromwell flag, Continental flag, Pine Tree flag, Gadsen flag, Grand Union flag, Betsy Ross flag, the Star Spangled Banner with 15 stars and stripes, and the United States flag. Arranged with the patriotic display is an assortment of the historical books now in the library for the use of the students.

Another stimulating idea was incorporated in the display of civics classes of David Peterson where students created a number of posters illustrating books. Outstanding work was by Sandra Thomas, Agie Salas, Lietta Gilliland, Lillian Ross, Joy Ann Gandy and Jill Visnak. Miss Visnak's poster is a detailed drawing of the shield fthe F.B.I. to illustrate the book, "The tory of the FBI." Mike Hanamura's poster utilizes the comic strip, "Peanuts," to point out excerpts from the book, "The Epic of Industry."

James Hinshaw Rites Held

James Madison Hinshaw, 87, of 1025 Washington Blvd., died Monday, following several months' illness.

He was born in Green County, Mo. and arrived in California from Elwood, Mo. in 1937. He had lived in this area and was a rancher until his retirement.

He was a member of the First Methodist church of Elwood, the Masonic Lodge in Ash Grove, Mo. and Ontario Odd Fellows Lodge, in which he was holder of a 50 year pin.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Myrtle V. Hinshaw; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Mary Esther Ruyle of Upland and Mrs. Mark P. Whipple of Lancaster; two newphews, Dr. Thos. Hinshaw, Longview, Wash., and W. W. Hinshaw, Missouri, and a niece, Ruth Henderson, Escondido.

The rites, Wednesday, were conducted in Richardson-Peterson Mortuary by the Rev. Fred F. Thornburg. Committal rites at Bellevue Mausoleum were conducted by Ontario IOOF.

Volunteer Painters At Work

Rain Halts Erection Of Church Arch Ribs, Laying Of Floor

Rain has brought to a temporary halt construction work on the new Brethren in Christ church facilities on Arrow Hwy., west of San Antonio Ave., but the deluge of precipitation has not even dampened the spirits of the volunteers from the congregation who have been busy doing all the interior painting in the completed educational wing.

Under the direction of Harvey Lenhert, Upland painting contractor and layman of the church, the work has been progressing for the past two Saturdays with 30 volunteers wielding brushes — some for the first time. Members of the Bible club painted yesterday and the volunteers are expected to finish the task this Saturday, according to Mr. Lenhert.

The inclement weather has made it virtually impossible to pour the main floor of the sanctuary structure, where all other foundation work has been accomplished. Alvin Gish, superintendent of construction, his assistants and volunteer crew are also awaiting clear weather which would permit erection of the laminated wood arch ribs for the main sanctuary.

The arch ribs arrived in Upland recently and are now awaiting clear weather on railroad cars on the Pacific Electric siding at Third Ave. and "C" St. The arch ribs were made in Oregon, sent by boat to Los Angeles harbor, and by PE train to Upland.

Melza Brown In Nazarene Revival Now

The First Church of the Nazarene began a post Easter revival series week, according to the Rev. Wm. E. Thompson, pastor, who stated the guest speaker is Dr. Melza Brown, evangelist of Boise, Idaho.

Dr. Brown has been active in the ministry for more than 40 years, 37 of which has been in continuous pastoral work. He received his religious education at Olivet, Illinois and Pasadena Nazarene colleges, and in 1954 received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from Bethany Nazarene college, Bethany, Okla.

John M. Anderson, music director, is in charge of music at all services and states there will be a special musical number each evening.

All interested are invited to attend. Services begin evenings at 7:30 o'clock and the Sunday services will be at 10:50 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Andrea Cuccia Death Sunday

Andrea Cuccia, 72, of 8430 Archibald Ave., Cucamonga, died in San Antonio Community hospital Sunday, following a two months' illness.

He was born in Italy and came to this country as a young man. He had lived in the Etiwanda and Cucamonga area since 1909 and was a vineyardist.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Minnie Cuccia; three daughters, Mrs. Chas. Ertel, Ontario; Mrs. Wm. Moffitt and Mrs. Geo. Wanger of Cucamonga; one son, Joseph P. Cuccia, Hollywood and two grandchildren.

A rosary was recited in Draper Memorial chapel Tuesday evening. Requiem mass was celebrated Wednesday, 9 a.m. in St. Joseph's Catholic church, of which the deceased was a member, by the Rev. Michael Browne. Entombment followed in Bellevue mausoleum.

$95 Offering Good Friday

More than 300 worshippers attended the community Good Friday services in the First Mennonite church. The offering of $95.56 will be turned over to the Sick Baby Fund of San Antonio Community hospital and The American Bible Society, according to the Rev. Wm. E. Cresswell, secretary of the Upland Ministerial Union.

The Rev. Paul Goering, host pastor, said the attendance equalled that of other years when a longer service had been held. This year's service time, between 2 p.m. and 3 p.m. was selected because in other years the largest attendance has been at that time.

Sen. Knowland Heard By 500

U. S. Senator Wm. F. Knowland earnestly and frankly discussed his views on labor, taxes and law enforcement at a meeting in Merton E. Hill auditorium Tuesday night. More than 500 persons were present, the large crowd being indicative of the interest in Mr. Knowland's forthright declarations.

Leland S. Davidson, Upland, presided with Jack Brewer, also of Upland and president of Chaffey District Young Republicans, who introduced the candidate for governor of California. An informal reception was held at the conclusion of the address and question and answer period. The senator was accompanied by Mrs. Knowland. Mrs. L. J. Barden, who is the local campaign manager for Mr. Knowland, was presented.

While declaring himself for strong unions and collective bargaining, Mr. Knowland emphasized his program called for better labor organizations that are strong due to the benefits they give their members without coercion.

He listed many points in his program, including: "Compel unions to admit as members all workers who qualify and who desire membership.

"Provide for the final determination of strikes by secret ballot.

"Prevent the control and domination of union locals by national and international organizations.

"Provide for the regulation by members of the actions of their union officials.

Regarding the economic situation, the senator declared that he was in favor of private agencies being given contracts for maintenance of military equipment rather than this work being done by government employes.

Two new police patrolmen will soon join Upland Police Dept., bringing the force to its full 19-man contingent, and two present members of the dept. will soon receive promotions to lieutenant and sergeant, according to Chief John Wessely.

As the lieutenantcy was vacated when Mr. Wessely became chief of police, it will now be filled by written examination given the sergeants of the department. This will in turn create a vacancy for sergeant, and one of the dept. patrolmen will be advanced to this post.

What We Want From The Three New Councilmen

At this time in 1962, three members of the Upland city council will be looking back on their four years in the city hall. They will be asking themselves; "What Have We Done?"

By that time, there will be about 15,000 other people here asking the same question of the council members.

No one ever expects three members of the city council to be able to bring about earth-shocking, historic events. These three people, with the cooperation of the other two councilmen, aided by an able staff of municipal employes and supported by many hundreds of interested citizens, however, can accomplish many solid improvements — and a fine, wholesome attitude.

Much has been done in the past and a strong foundation has been created on which to build for the future. The future is always challenging because of new problems and new opportunities. Always, there is much to be done and the glowing possibilities give a thrilling spark to one's noblest ambitions. One's enthusiasm is always at a high point at the start of an enterprize.

What do we want our councilmen to do?

Without a doubt, all of us want our leaders in the city administration to see that a solid, quality community continues to develop here.

Fortunately, Upland is today one of the "better residential" communities of Southern California. And so the pattern has been set. We have high standards —and it may take some strong leadership to keep those standards high.

In keeping those standards high, however, let us not become extreme to the point that this community is ignored. A very reasonable, practical approach must be accepted in recognizing the opportunity for good growth and development.

We liked what some of the candidates advocated during the recent weeks—good public relations and the encouragement of the full development of the business and industrial possibilities of the community.

What they meant about improved relations, we believe, concerned the general reception given to persons who want to construct buildings in the community, and who want to change the use of land. Not that the reception has not been good in the past; it has in most cases. The fact remains, however, that the "human element" is a very important item in all transactions. While many agencies, public and private, have difficulties in pleasing all the people, we look with hope that in the future, firms and individuals who want to bring major or minor improvements here are given every reasonable encouragement, prompt, courteous attention and the fullest possible cooperation. In any event, the presence of a wholesome, friendly cooperative atmosphere is desired. We expect the councilmen to see that such an atmosphere is maintained every day.

Many, many opportunities for changes can come during the four years. Do we want this community to be ignored?

At least one community in densely-developed San Gabriel valley was ignored by developers, apparently because the people in control too strongly resisted changes. Empty store buildings are the result while only a short distance outside the community are busy, new shopping centers.

No one wants Upland to be ignored any longer from a standpoint of commercial or industrial development.

Certainly, it is fine to have a master plan as a guide, but sometimes the authors of this plan might be wrong and it is possible that firms with huge sums to invest might know more about what is needed and where it is needed than some local laymen.

"We don't want change — keep the community just as it is," is a comment occasionally expressed.

Well, maybe so, but it so happens that many owners of orange groves are today eagerly hoping for an opportunity to convert their land into something more profitable. Some citizens, comfortably secluded in a little, peaceful community, are surely aware of a changing era and of the need for many local owners to accept the opportunity.

Change does not always mean improvement but it is likely that if we do not accept the best possible improvements, we might find deteriation worse.

And so, what do we want from the city hall?

We expect positive leadership that will continue the development of a quality community. At the same time, we want a very receptive attitude for every applicant for a change that will add to the building of a fine, well-rounded community.

Fine public relations are vital between the city hall and the individuals and the agencies which will bring about good changes.

TIME PASSES

15 YEARS AGO

While this particular area was not included, Harold C. Troxell, associate hydraulic engineer, told the county board of supervisors that the Santa Ana river basin was in the midst of one of the wettest 10-year periods since the days of the early missions. He said if the rainy weather continued until June it would be the wettest period since records were started, 73 years preiously.

There was to be no Easter vacation for schools in the Upland and Chaffey district, due to the shortage of the school year. The only holiday for school children was to be Good Friday.

The Ladies Aid of Bethany Union church was to honor new families and former residents of San Antonio heights at a community dinner.

Just as soon as license plates and other materials were available the Upland police were instituting bicycle licensing.

Norman S. Lawson, president of the Chaffey board of education, was retiring. Mr. Lawson was leaving the board because of his work in a wartime industrial project in Los Angeles.

Patricia Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hill, had been given the rank of lieutenant in the army. She was a physiotherapist stationed in Vancouver, Wash.

Sale of $207,000 was the goal of the Victory bond drive in Upland.

News of servicemen included Walter Dale Hewitt, transferred to Le Grande, Or., after completing basic training in Fresno; PFC Edward Kirk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loring N. Kirk, home on leave before being transferred from San Diego to Houlton, Me; Lt. Francis Wilson, U. S. field artillery, on leave from Camp Roberts; Thos. H. Settle Jr., radioman first class in the U.S. Coast Guard, who was going to Alaska; Jack Creighton, also of the coast guard, who was stationed in Ketichan, Alaska; Leon Pounders, a recent recruit, in training at the Farragut, Idaho, naval station; Stanley Glenn Teague, in the army at Camp Haan, who was advanced to the rank of corporal in the coast artillery; Capt. Wm. Allen, formerly with J. J. Atwood Co., who was in the ordinance corps in England and Lyle Murkens, an aviation cadet, who was stationed in Nashville, Tenn.

Sharps and Flats

By CHUCK BARLOW

It still hasn't rained as much in Upland this year as it does in Western Scotland any year. I'll admit we've had a smart lot of rain but I'm from a school that was indoctrinated in the drenchings of Scotland.

My disposition has worn about as thin as a damp cigarette paper with this continuity of dismal days, but I'm a beaming cherub compared to what I was in Scotland.

Let me tell you about that country. Then you'll appreciate these little showers we've been blessed with from time to time.

We were bundled unceremoniously ashore in the rain while our ship was put in floating drydock on the Clyde River at Roseneath, Scotland. This is across the river from Helensburg and about twenty-five miles seaward from Glasgow.

We were assigned to a base constructed of American materials by American technicians. This is mentioned for those who might have been stuck in one of those British Nisson huts at one time or another. The Nisson huts I saw were about as weather-proof as a straw hat. The reports I got on living in them were all bad.

Once ashore we floundered around in the deepest, stickiest mud I ever encountered outside of Nebraska gumbo on the Missouri River bottoms. We finally located assigned quarters between heavy downpours. Once inside we were forced to shout to be heard above the rain pounding on the metal roof and sides of the hut.

These showers would stop with the suddeness of turning off a showerbath. They would start the same way. Once a shower slackened we found ourselves still shouting at each other. About the time we lowered our voices and started to enjoy the quiet another shower would roar against the metal hut.

I'm calling these squalls by the pleasant name of showers. But in reality, the water came down in torrents.

This wasn't a one day or one week session. It was all the time during January and February while we were at this base. It rained from fifteen to twenty times every twenty-four hours. . .and I mean rained.

I saw the sun one time during this period.

To add further insult, it seems as though the daylight period was being rationed. Being so far north there is a minimum of daylight. In such murky weather it isn't light until 10 a.m. and it starts getting dark about 3 p.m. It is never real light during daylight and it is the darkest dark I've every been exposed to in this life.

At night, even when not raining, it was darker than an intense shade of black. How people managed their business at night in the city blackouts was always beyond me. I always got lost, never knew whether I was on the street or the sidewalk, slammed into walls and fell into drains.

In my case it didn't matter. I was but an observer. But those hustling Scots had to find home, work, provisioners and pubs. How they managed will always be one of the unsolved mysteries of my life.

A lofty range of small mountains looked down on the sea near our base. They had none of the majesty or beauty of our western mountains but they did something for the scenery.

Once, while visiting with a Sotch friend, I mentioned that a climb to the top of one of the mountains, during a rainless day, might be a good adventure.

He laughed at my proposal. According to him one could never complete such a climb. The nearer to the top the softer the mud, he said. The whole thing was a mountain of mud. . . .the kind where a man can get in up to his armpits.

That was enough for me. A country where they have so much mud they pile it up in mountains is not for this pilgrim.

Mt. Baldy still looks mighty solid and it is nearly four hours between rains, sometimes, so we haven't much to worry about.

25 YEARS AGO

The city council rejected a petition to legalize the sale of 3.2 beer and light wine.

The problem of cutting $100,000 from the Chaffey high school budget was facing board members. Taxpayers, who were asking the reduction, were also making suggestions as to how it could be effected

In spite of the fact that the city paid nearly $6,000 in interest on water department bonds at the first of the month, city savings were up to schedule and budget figures indicated actual expenses would be below estimates for the year.

New Books For You . . .

. . . at the Upland City Library

By Hazel Adele Pulling
Librarian

Gruesome reading for these days just before Spring breaks is Robert Traver's Anatomy of a Murder. More than a mere mystery story, this novel is a study in personal motivation which turns from hatred to ruthelss aggrandisement under the law. It is also a case study of the mind of a brilliant lawyer who, of course surprisingly, enmeshes the unsuspected while he pits his skill against all the resources of the State. And it is a tale of Midwestern life in a small town with all its psychological manifestations. This story will keep you busy until it stops raining and, after that, you'll just read on.

Edna Ferber's Ice Palace is one of her best. Heroic in theme, this tale rivals her ever popular Cimarron and far surpasses her best-selling Giant. Alaska in all its coldness and its beauty, its riches and its struggle for political entity, provide the background for a struggle between two powerful men for power and a woman. Moving in style and strong in characterization, Ice Palace will be popular for some time to come. Right now, you can have it free, if it's in, or on rental at five cents a day whenever you're lucky enough to catch it on the rental shelf.

A key book in the history of America is Howard K. Beale's new study of Theodore Roosevelt and the Rise of America to World Power. Beale is professor of history at Johns Hopkins and this book is the result of his researches and his meditations on causation in our national life. Why is the United States a world power today? Beale traces much of the answer right back to Theodore Roosevelt and the forces he set going, as he does, too, the causes of many of America's failures.

Irwin Rose's Serpent in the Sky is an interesting psychological story of a schizophrenic. Written in the first person, the book affords a wierd sort of reader identification as it takes you into a mind and out again into a world of action. If you enjoyed Jane Ward's Snake Pit and other more recent studies of the psychopathological, you will find this book intriguing. What's more, it is important!

The fourth volume of Churchill's History of the English Speaking Peoples, The Great Democracies, is now in the library. Closely relating British and American affairs during and after the Civil War, this book is important to students of American history as well as of English. Like the other Churchill books, The Great Democracies presents a stirring panorama of world events, and a colorful and devoted account of Victorian England. It closes with the Boer war, an event in which Churchill himself played a minor role, partly as captive of the Boers. This book, too, has all of Sir Winston's clear and splendid style that carries the reader almost as a novel does.

And finally, Anya Seton's The Winthrop Woman will bury you in history while it engrosses you novelistically. Anya Seton is one of our top biographical novelists and her tales, historically authentic, have all the lures that Gone With the Wind had. This is a tale of a woman, niece of John Winthrop of Massachusetts Bay colony, who couldn't abide her uncle's Puritanism. What she actually did about it makes a tale you won't be able to put aside if you like history and the novel.

C. W. Kelly Jr. Candidate For Assessor

C. W. KELLY JR.

C. W. Kelly Jr., the first announced candidate for the office of San Bernardino county assessor, released his "Efficiency in Government" platform statement today. In his prepared news release, Kelly called for an aggressive battle to give the taxpayers tax relief based on today's market value for their property and not to continue to be burdened with the present old, stagnant and inequitable tax load they find themselves confronted with.

In referring to this office, Kelly stated that, "The Assessor's Office should be, and must be, the most efficient office in the county governmental picture, as this primary governing agency comes in contact with the direct demands of the tax payers and voters. The continuance of the 'old-guard set-up' in assessing, may tend to influence other governmental agencies along the same lines of deterioration."

Kelly has been active in the community affairs of San Bernardino County since he returned from the second World War, where he served overseas with the Pacific task force of the U. S. Navy. He attended the University of Kansas under Navy sponsorship, majoring in special engineering courses for the Navy.

Nisbet Declares Feather River Projects Funds Necessary Now

Eugene G. Nisbet, state assemblyman from this district, is on record today declaring "that construction funds for the Feather river project should be allocated now." He referred to the highly controversial measure in the state legislature.

"The northern portion of the state is suffering severely from floods and inundation even at this moment, and the future threatens more such calamities if we do not act", said Mr. Nisbet. "Furthermore, the southland, including San Bernardino county, is desperately in need of supplemental water."

The Feather River project, a part of the California water plan, promises to help meet these two gigantic needs of conservation and distribution, he said.

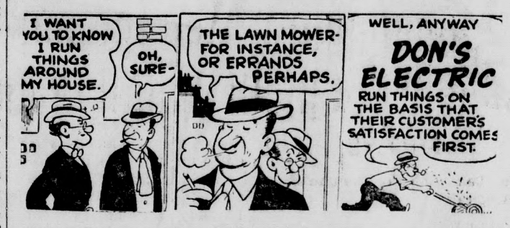

"Certainly we, south of the Tehachapi, are entitled to a firm guarantee of an adequate supply of water. But, in good conscience, I cannot use the fact that the north is under the shadow of calamity to exact from their representatives agreement as to the distribution of water to our area," said Nisbet.

"I am convinced that there is sufficient surplus water produced in California to adequately supply the wants and needs of all areas of deficiency."

"Family Picnic Area" Memorial Park Experiment

Homer Greear, street supt., and Elwin Alder, city manager, complete installation of a Hancock Parkmaster all-metal barbecue unit on a new "family picnic area" in the southwest picnic area of Memorial park. The new "family picnic area" is west of the Atwood kitchen, seen in the background above, and consists of a green concrete paved area on which is installed the new metal and wood picnic table and the new barbecue unit. Mr. Alder said the family-size picnic unit is an experiment, and if utilized this summer and found successful, will be duplicated several times in other picnic areas of the park. Fifteen new picnic tables like the one pictured are being added to the park facilities, and with five each painted green, yellow or red, they will add considerable color as well as convenience to the park. The plan for the picnic-barbecue sites is in response to the need for more such small barbecue facilities reported by Uplanders in the park and recreation facilities survey conducted last year by the Upland PTAs for the city's capitol improvements committee on parks and recreation.

Consultants Map Procedure For City In Determining Legality Of Making Refunds

District Committee Meets To Force Court Test Of Refunds From Defunct Subvision Funds

According to a legal plan outlined for the City of Upland by the legal firm of O'Melveny and Myers, City Clerk Hazel Cassell will refuse to countersign a warrant for payment of a refund of monies paid into the park and school site fund and subdivision drainage fund, and thereby force the issue into court as a test case.

In this way the city hopes to determine the legality of refunding monies from the city funds declared illegal by the courts in a suit brought against the city by Mike Kelber, developer and Ontario city councilman.

In making the suggestion, the consultants informed the councilmen Thursday night that this is "a recognized precedure for a city to obtain a court declaration of the legality of such proposed refunds and is not an indication of the personal stand on the issue by the city clerk."

Inexpensive, Speedy

Such a test suit was also said to be a relatively inexpensive and speedy method of determining such a legal point. To proceed in such a test, the consultants outlined the following schedule for the city:

Select a case where monies were paid into the funds on a subdivision of four lots or less, with no written or oral protest; one on which the statute of limitations (period of two years) has run on the claim.

Mandamus Action

The city clerk would then refuse to countersign a warrant as required by Sec. 23703 of the Gvernment code, on the grounds that the proposed refund may be invalid and beyond the power of the city; the city would then bring mandamus action against the city clerk to compel the clerk to countersign the warrant previously approved by the city council and signed by the mayor; the city clerk would next demur to the complaint generally, and the matter would be automatically heard in the law and motion division of the Superior court, and a judgment of the Superior court after it had become final, would be sufficient to protect the city in making payment of this and all other claims, assuming a full and fair presentation were made as is required in this type of test suit.

California courts recognize test suits as a means for public corporations to settle the type of legal questions involved in the city's refund problem, and such suits are commonly used by other cities and other public corporations in similiar circumstances, the legal firm reported.

Repeal Ordinance

In addition to receiving this procedure for returning the $73,455 collected in the city funds, the councilmen heard the first reading of an ordinance prepared by City Attorney Henry Busch to repeal the two amendments to the Subdivision ordinance which established the now defunct and illegal funds. The ordinance also establishes a procedure for developers who paid into the funds to make claims for refunds on claim forms to be supplied by the city clerk. Such claims would be submitted to the city clerk and forwarded to the city manager for approval, then to the city council finance committee for an audit and finally to the city council for the payment order.

The ordinance also provides for a Sept. 30, 1958, deadline on refund applications, except in any instance where the request falls within the two-year statute of limitations period following the original payment.

The city clerk is to mail to each person or firm having paid into the funds, a notice of the right to refund together with the form for making claim. Second reading of this ordinance is scheduled for the April 17 council meeting.

17 Sea Scouters Tell Thrills Of Annual Cruise On Resolute

Home early Sunday afternoon from the annual cruise of Sea Scout Ship Tigershark, aboard the ketch Reolute, 17 "old salts" of this area admitted to a wonderful week with some green-faced experiences during rough weather.

Skipper Wallace Randleman was in charge of the annual cruise, which first took the sea scouts south to Ensenada on the west coast of Baja, Calif., Mexico. All the scouts enjoyed "shore leave" in Ensenada while the ship weathered out a storm there.

Due to prevailingly bad weather, the Resolute sailed back along the coast to San Diego and remained there three days, sailing about the harbor. Twice the ship ran aground as it followed the old channel formerly followed. As the scouts learned later, a new channel had been dredged. Both times the ship ran aground, high tide soon had it free — the first time after a two-hour wait.

Early Saturday morning the Resolute set sail for Catalina Is., where the sea scouts traditionally attend Easter Sunday church services. Only five minutes from anchor about 8 p.m. Saturday, however, the ship received a storm warning of a hurricane force wind expected so sailed back to Los Angeles harbor immediately, cutting the cruise short by one day. As continuing rain Sunday morning kep the ship in the harbor, the day's plans were set aside and the boys went ashore and were met by their parents at 1 p.m.

During the cruise the ship's officers slept below deck with the crew on deck — covered by tarpaulins when it rained. And some rain fell every day of the Easter vacation cruise. At Ensenada, a high wind hit and dragged the ship's anchor, threatening to beach the Resolute, so it was sailed out near the breakwater so as to avoid the strong waves created by the wind. Half the boys were ashore during the storm and aided in securing bolts on a new dock in the harbor which was heavily damaged as it was lashed by the high waves.

Recently, after helping Don Masluk celebrate his birthday members toured the Etiwanda steam plant.

No one knows the answer to that question. But this is certain: a health checkup now — could help your doctor save your life if cancer does strike. That's why the American Cancer Society urges an annual checkup for all adults.

Girl Scouts Work Party

Senior Girl Scouts of the Chaffey Girl Scout council have been active recently addressing folders to be mailed to more than 2000 Girl Scouts in the area. The folders give the schedules and rates for Day camp, Camp Conifer and Trail camp.

Camping at Conifer will start June 30 with four 12-day sessions. Day camp, which is for all Girl Scouts this year and not for only Brownies as previously, will be in two sessions. The first one for six days, which are not consecutive, starts June 30. The second similar session starts July 7. These camps will, as in former years, be held in San Antonio park, 24th St. and Mountain Ave. A reduction of $3 in the day camp fee makes it a desirable program at $4.

Lauries Find Upland Similar To Scotland

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Laurie, 1381 Alta Ave., are newcomers who selected Upland for their home as it reminds them more of their native Ayrshire, Scotland, than other Southern California areas. The Lauries came to the United States, and to Santa Monica, from Scotland 10 years ago. Ayrshire is noted as the home of Bobbie Burns.

The couple has one son, Martin, who continues to reside in Santa Monica. Mr. Laurie is with Universal International studios.

ARRANGE BRIDGE

Mrs. Jack Booth and Mrs. Rex Booth will be the hostesses for the April bridge luncheon at Red Hill Country club.

It's BUSINESS Is GOOD WEEK

Savings are BIG! Business Is Good!

The story of . . .
A MAN WHO LIVED BY THE SIDE OF THE ROAD . . . and Sold Hot Dogs

He was hard of hearing, so he had no radio.
He had trouble with his eyes, so he had no newspaper.
But he sold good hot dogs.

He put up a sign on the highway, telling how good they were.
He stood by the side of the road and cried, "Buy a hot dog mister." And people bought.

He increased his meat and bun orders and he bought a bigger stove to take care of his trade.

He got his son home from college to help him.

But then something happened.

His son said, "Father, haven't you been listening to the radio? There's a big depression on. The International situation is terrible, and the Domestic situation is even worse."

Whereupon the father thought, "Well, my son has been to college. He listens to the radio and reads the papers, so he ought to know." So the father cut down the bun order, took down his advertising signs, and no longer bothered to stand on the highway to sell his hot dogs.

His hot dog sales fell almost overnight.

"You were right, son," the father said to the boy. "We are certainly in the middle of a great depression."

PARDON THE EXPRESSION but WHAT'S WITH THIS RECESSION? It brings to mind the homespun philosophy of America's beloved Will Rogers, "All I know is what I hear and read in the papers." A Board of Directors meeting was called recently at Shoppping Bag Food Stores. But when the records were looked at, it was found that BUSINESS IS GOOD!

In fact, since the first of the year new sales records were achieved in three different departments! All it took was a little extra effort . . . good values were offered, we let the people know about them and they were bought. And this is a good indication, as the food industry affects the farmer, the rancher, the worker in the field, the processor, the trucker, the wholesaler, the retailer . . . and it affects all of us as consumers.

As far as we are concerned, BUSINESS IS GOOD. So put on your "positive-thinking-cap" and get that B-I-G feeling.

Allan S. Barr Speaker

Statistical Review Of Local Business Given Rotarians

A statistical review of local business and its relationship to national trends was presented by Allan S. Barr to fellow Rotarians at last week's luncheon meeting in Upland Woman's club house. Mr. Barr's report indicated that business for the first two months in Upland was down, while post office receipts were up, and business is now showing an optimistic trend.

Donovan Palmer, Paul Hottel and Jack Atwood also commented on their businesses, and indicated optimism as their volume sales have been better than the national average to date.

Postal Increase

Mr. Barr reported postal receipts for the first two months of 1958 were up 9.5 per cent over the same period of 1957, and he also said average daily attendance in the first quarter of Upland schools, kindergarten through eighth grade, was up 10 per cent over the first three months of the previous school year. "There seems to be no lack of potential customers," he stated.

"So far as we can learn, employment at the aircraft plants in the area has stabalized after the recent layoffs," Mr. Barr continued. "Employment at the steel mill is up from the low point of Jan. and Feb."

Lower Level Seen

Speaking more specifically of his business—banking—the president of First National Bank of Upland had this to say: "At the beginning of this year we anticipated a lower level of activity for the first six months of 1958 for two reasons — a lower range of employment in the area and a very small orange crop.

"The first three months has unfortunately proved this to be correct. Our average deposits are off eight per cent from a year ago. In this connection, it is interesting to note that savings deposits are up about the same amount, eight per cent, and the loss is in our commercial deposits, probably accounted for in the citrus business and a lower level of activity in some commercial lines.

Increase In Savings

"In addition to our increase in savings, I presume the other banks and the savings and loan associations have shown substantial increases in savings.

"Our loans are up slightly more than 20 per cent from last year. Installment loans are practically on the same level. The sharpest drop in activity has been in our escrow department where the number of escrows opened in the first quarter dropped 50 per cent from last year, which may have been above normal. At that time we were handling the sales of several tracts. We probably hit an all-time low for new escrows started in Feb. March saw about two and one-half times as many new escrows opened as did February."

Henry Klusman Rites Saturday

Henry Geo. Klusman, 83, 7691 Turner Ave., Cucamonga, died at his home, April 3, after a three months' illness.

Mr. Klusman, who came to Cucamonga from his native Germany 67 years ago, to work on the farm of his brother William, had become one of the areas most successful contractors and boosters.

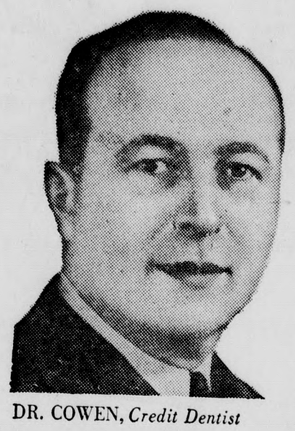

He went into business 40 years ago as an irrigation contractor installing pipelines between Cucamonga and La-Verne and in the Palmdale area. As a construction man he built most of the business buildings in Cucamonga. He also built the Chaffey Memorial Library, grammer schools in Alta Loma, Barstow, Needles and Twenty-Nine Palms. One of his more recent projects was the Chino Basin Municipal Water District office on Archibald Ave., south of Arrow Hwy.

A short time ago he was honored by more than 200 people at a Cucamonga Chamber of Commerce dinner. Too ill to attend, he was represented on that occasion by his wife.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Olga Klusman, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. John McKee, Alta Loma; Mrs. Max Luttenberg, Sepulveda and Mrs. Geo. P. McCable of Cucamonga; a brother, John Klusman of Cucamonga; six grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

He was a member of Euclid Lodge 63 IOOF, the Independent Order of Foresters, the Cucamonga Chamber of Commerce and was a life member of the Cucamonga Service club.

The funeral service was held Saturday, 10 a.m., in Draper Memorial chapel, with the Rev. W. H. Stockton, minister of the Cucamonga Community Methodist church officiating. Interment was in Bellevue cemetery.

"U" PROJECT CREATES MYSTERY

Upland High school's plan for a large letter "U" on the slopes of the San Gabriel mountains north of the city last week created a temporary mystery.

Larry Horak, 2429 San Antonio Crescent East, and Bill Harris, 2344 Park Blvd., West, placed a 10 x 10 square of canvas on the ridge above Frankish canyon — after clearing the area of brush — and pegged it down with rocks.

Purpose of this project was to observe the canvas from the valley to determine if the site was ideal for placement of the Upland High school "U".

An Uplander who spotted the white area through binoculars reported it to the sheriff's sub-station in Monte Vista. Capt. C. S. Myers requested Cable airport to send a plane aloft to observe the white object, and subsequently learned it was a canvas held down by rocks. Learning of the investigation, the two Highlanders reported to the West End sub-station to clarify the situation.

Chas. Stoner Skycrest Ford Foreman

CHARLES STONER

Appointed foreman of Skycrest Ford is Chas. "Charlie" Stoner who has devoted most of his life to the automotive maintenance business. The automotive headquarters is at 310 East Ninth St.

While he is new to Upland auto owners, he is not new to the Ben Alexander organization. Until being assigned to the local Ford headquarters, Mr. Stoner was shop foreman at Mr. Alexander's Ford dealership in Highland Park. Mr. Alexander is associated with Jack Christensen in ownership of the Upland Ford agency.

"I have a wonderful opportunity here," Mr. Stoner said "because the equipment is the finest and all the men in the maintenance department are very good mechanics and are interested in pleasing every customer."

Mr. Stoner, an energetic, forceful leader, emphasized that the important element in automotive repairing is the attitude of the mechanics.

"We have men who are enthusiastically interested in giving satisfaction and our goal is to see that the Ford dealership maintenance department is sincerely approved by every car owner who visits us."
